Citibank Berhad (Registration No. 199401011410 (297089-M))  EXPORT LETTERS OF CREDIT June 1, 2022
1. What is this product about? A Letter of Credit (LC) is an irrevocable written undertaking, issued by the Bank (Issuing Bank) on behalf of the Buyer (the Importer) to pay the Beneficiary (the Supplier or Exporter) against stipulated documents, provided all the terms and conditions in the LC are complied with. Export LC refers to LC services provided to the Beneficiary for both domestic and international trade and comprise of the following key services: LC Advising The Issuing Bank provides LC to Advising Bank in the Beneficiary’s country that in turn will process the incoming LC and advise to the Beneficiary. Hence, LC Advising is a service provided to the LC Beneficiary by the Bank where the Bank assumes the role of a LC Advising bank and checks for the authenticity of all incoming LCs issued to the Beneficiary. LC Confirmation If the Beneficiary of the LC doubts the ability of the LC Issuing Bank to pay, and/or considers the country in which the LC Issuing Bank is located as a high risk country, he/she may arrange to have the LC “Confirmed” by another bank of a higher credit standing/reputation. The LC Confirmation constitutes a definite undertaking by the Confirming Bank to assume the obligations and liabilities under the LC in addition to that of the Issuing Bank, if documents are presented in compliance with the terms and conditions of the LC. LC Discounting LC discounting is an advance of the Export LC bill proceeds by the negotiating bank to the Beneficiary - upon presentation of complying documents with or without recourse to the Beneficiary. In the case of without recourse, the Negotiating bank is taking risk on the Issuing bank. The Bank can negotiate and advance the Beneficiary against bills drawn on sight or usance LC issued by acceptable banks to obtain working capital prior to obtaining payment from the Issuing/Reimbursement bank. 2.
