Citi Named Best International Bank for Japan by Euromoney Awards for Excellence 2024

Tokyo – Citi has been named Best International Bank in Japan by Euromoney for the third consecutive year. Euromoney, a leading global financial markets magazine, at its annual Awards for Excellence that recognizes the best in banking across key areas that are most important to a bank's key stakeholders, clients, board, and executive management teams. The period of consideration for the awards was the 2023 calendar year.

Robert Nakamura, Citi Country Officer and Banking Head for Japan said:

We are honored to receive the Euromoney Award for Best International Bank in Japan. This recognition reflects our commitment to excellence, innovation, and unwavering dedication to our clients. This achievement could not have been made possible without our incredible team and valued clients. We continue to serve as a trusted advisor to our clients and supporting Japan companies' expansion overseas, and international companies operating in Japan.

Citi is one of the largest providers of international financial services for Japanese multinational companies based outside Japan, and currently provides services to Japanese companies in 99 countries.

Globally Citi has won a record of forty-one global, regional, and local market awards from Euromoney including global awards such as The World's Best Digital Bank, and The World's Best Investment Bank in the Emerging Markets, and regional awards including Asia's Best Investment Bank, and Asia's Best Bank for Financing.
